

A BOOK LAUNCH

Words and Ideas

by David Tribe

to be held at

Parliament House Theatrette Macquarie St Sydney

Wednesday 5 May 3 pm

hosted by Lee Rhiannon MLC

on behalf of the Humanist Society of New South Wales Inc.

Words and Ideas is a small book describing the different philosophies associated with the words including: atheism, agnosticism, capitalism, individualism, liberalism, rationalism, scepticism, secularism, socialism, postmodernism amongst many other words.

The book is devised to help explain the history and implications of a number of isms bandied around in the Humanist movement and the world at large. It aims to put all of these isms in their historical contexts to better reveal their changing meanings. This small book should be a useful ready-reference for all people interested in both humanism and the world religions and could be useful as source material for senior high school students and perhaps university undergraduates as part of their sociology and philosophy.

Following this launch a CD produced by a member Dennis Morris entitled Love is born comprised of 21 songs in English interspersed with Zulu will also be launched.
